New & NOTEWORTHY

Route 66, The Mother Road | explorestlouis.com/route66

Route 66 – makes it's most important roadside stops right here in St. Louis. The 2,451-mile (3,900 km) road begins in downtown Chicago and ends on the pier in Santa Monica, California, but in between it's St. Louis that puts the Route on the map. The Missouri History Museum in beautiful Forest Park can give you all the details on America's road in its St. Louis history galleries. Drive through the Maplewood neighborhood to get your kicks following interpretive signs along the route. At the National Museum of Transportation, classic automobiles on display add an air of nostalgia to every car-lover's holiday. Just outside of St. Louis, Meramec Caverns is the first tourist attraction on Route 66. Cruise into the famous Ted Drewes' Frozen Custard stand along Old Route 66 for a Concrete. That's not a piece of the highway, it's a delicious milkshake blended so thick with your favorite flavors it can be served upside down and won't fall out of the cup.

The Blues

Just south of Busch Stadium, where the St. Louis Cardinals play baseball in downtown St. Louis, several outstanding music clubs are playing the blues. A short walk between the venues takes you to blues heaven where you can listen to the best local and touring performers every night.
